Scripture Reading Isaiah 58

Your salvation will come like the dawn, and your wounds will quickly heal.

Your godliness will lead you forward, and the glory of the Lord will protect you from behind.

Then when you call, the Lord will answer. "Yes, I am here," he will quickly reply.

Remove the heavy yoke of oppression. Stop pointing your finger and spreading rumors!

Feed the hungry and help those in trouble. Then your light will shine out from the darkness, and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon.

The Lord will guide you continually, giving you water when you are dry and restoring your strength.

You will be like a well-watered garden, like an ever-flowing spring.

Some of you will rebuild the deserted ruins of your cities. Then you will be called the one who repairs broken places, the one who makes the streets inhabitable again.

Keep the Sabbath day holy. Enjoy the Sabbath and speak of it with delight as the Lord's holy day. Honor the Sabbath in everything you do on that day.

Then the Lord will be your delight.

I will give you great honor and satisfy you with the inheritance I promised. I, the Lord, have spoken!

Message

Matthew 7.13-14

Don't look for shortcuts to God. The market is flooded with surefire, easygoing formulas for a successful life that can be practiced in your spare time. Don't fall for that stuff, even though crowds of people do. The way to life—to God!—is vigorous and requires total attention.

Matthew 4.1-11

Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted there by the devil. For forty days and forty nights he fasted and became very hungry.

During that time the devil came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread."

But Jesus told him, "No! The Scriptures say, 'People do not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God."

Then the devil took him to the holy city, Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple, and said, "If you are the Son of God, jump off! For the Scriptures say, 'He will order his angels to protect you, and they will hold you up in their hands so you won't even hurt your foot on a stone."

Jesus responded, "The Scriptures also say, 'You must not test the Lord your God."

Next the devil took him to the peak of a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. "I will give it all to you," he said, "if you will kneel down and worship me."

"Get out of here, Satan," Jesus told him. "For the Scriptures say, 'You must worship the Lord your God and serve him only."

Then the devil went away, and angels came and took care of Jesus.

Prayer

Everyone Together

When we face limits, O God, we lose hope. When we encounter restrictions, we lack imagination. When we face difficult decisions, we are indecisive. When we are trapped in challenge or crisis, we do not ask for help. We confess that we need you to go beyond our limits. We need you for inspiration. We need your wisdom for good judgment. We need you to make a way forward. In this time of worship, we acknowledge our need to know and experience your grace. Amen.
